

This agreement will be for a period of 1 year, subject to an extension by mutual consent of the parties concerned.

MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING (MOU)

between

UNIVERSITY OF SANTO TOMAS

and

UNIVERSITAS KATOLIK SANTO THOMAS

University of Santo Tomas (Manila, Philippines) and Universitas Katolik Santo Thomas (Medan, Indonesia) enter into the following agreement to promote academic exchange and cooperation.

Article One

We agree to exchange written and published academic materials, and to invite each other to take part in the conference, symposia, and cultural performances organized by our institutions.

Article Two

We agree to exchange faculty, students, and researchers for the purpose of study, teaching, research, and cultural performance.

Article Three

These activities shall be determined in each case through particular agreements which are consonant with the rules and regulations of each institution.

Article Four

Scholarship, reduction of tuition fees, simplification of matriculation procedures, and sundry amenities will be provided by the host institution to the extent that its regulations and circumstance permit.

Article Five

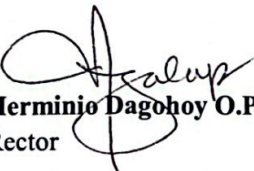

This agreement is not legally binding document, but is meant to describe the nature of mutual cooperation, to give guidelines for such, and to leave undiminished the full autonomy of each party.

Article Six

This agreement will be for a period of 3 years, subject to an extension based on the mutual consents of the parties concerned.
